

**Timberhouse**

Volume 1
Issue 12
December, 2006

**News**

Timberhouse Corner

One Deer, And Maybe More

The Lumkes' shot one deer in gun season and it turned out to be very good venison.

Animal Corner

Spider Pets

The Lumkes' have two new pets: Wolf Spiders. Rebekah's is small and Matthew's is huge. Their names are Hunter and Killer. They are in old little index box holders and Killer has already attacked a mealworm and eaten it.

Wildlife Corner

Down by the Creek

Matthew Lumkes is an expert fisherman. He has already caught 9 minnows over 5 inches down by Back ditch creek and is planning to catch more. He caught all nine of them with his fishing pole. Matthew Lumkes

Pilot Corner

Down to Eagle Creek

Dave Gevers and John Lumkes went to Eagle Creek Airport (In case you didn't know that is near Indy) to fly a guy who they did an annual on.

Lumkes Children

RC Corner

What a Find!!

In the last couple of weeks Matthew and John Lumkes went on a hike to find a $400 RC glider that Larry crashed. When he was flying the airplane it got to far away and he lost all control. Even though Matthew and John Lumkes searched far and wide they could not locate it. Recently Dave has just found it.

Editor-in-chief:
Rebekah Lumkes
Creativity Specialist:
Matthew Lumkes
Artistic Reviewer:
Rebekah Lumkes